ABOUT THE TRAINING
Join us as we examine the complex dynamics of domestic violence and how to best support those impacted by it. In this interactive engaging training, we will explore the meaning of safety for survivors and their children, define and demystify the safety planning process, and practice applying safety planning strategies to a variety of complicated situations.

For questions, please contact Candice Tindell, Training & Outreach Coordinator, at ctindell@ourresilience.org or (872) 356-8217.
