Job Posting

Job Title: Trauma Intervention Specialist
Program: Trauma Therapy
Salary Range: $43-46K
Date Posted: 11/16/2020

Resilience is an independent, not-for-profit organization dedicated to the healing and empowerment of sexual assault survivors through non-judgmental crisis intervention counseling, individual and group trauma therapy, and medical and legal advocacy in the greater Chicago metropolitan area. Established in 1974, Resilience now serves more than 2000 survivors of sexual violence and their loved ones annually through our main office in downtown Chicago and our community-based offices in Austin, Ravenswood, and on the Stroger Hospital campus.

We are currently looking for a Trauma Intervention Specialist to join our team. The Trauma Intervention Specialist will be the first point of contact for survivors and their families who are seeking Resilience trauma therapy services. This position will be responsible for providing immediate crisis intervention and information and referrals to clients as well as their non-offending significant others. The Trauma Intervention Specialist will provide an assessment of current client needs to determine appropriate support services. Additionally, this position is responsible for managing the trauma therapy waitlist and assuring referrals occur to both internal and external support systems as determined by assessment of client need.

Qualifications

- Master's degree in a social work, counseling, or related field required; clinical licensure (LSW/LCSW or LPC/LCPC) preferred.
- Minimum of two years' experience providing counseling services required, including support groups.
- Must have excellent crisis counseling and client assessment skills.
- Previous experience working on women's issues, addressing sexual violence/gender-based violence, and working with diverse populations including LGBTQ communities strongly preferred
- Completion of a minimum of 40-hours of sexual assault training by an Illinois Coalition Against Sexual Assault member center within 60 days of hire is required; previous completion of the training is strongly preferred
- Flexibility to work two evening hours per week is required
