

JOB DESCRIPTION

Position Title:	Prevention Educator (Austin)
Employment Classification:	Full-time / Non-exempt
Reports to:	Director of Education & Training
Pay Range:	$40,000 to $42,000 (annualized)

GENERAL ROLE DESCRIPTION

The Prevention Educator is responsible for providing sexual violence prevention and activism directed toward social change and primary prevention of sexual violence. Strategies include sexual violence public awareness, youth focused prevention education, professional training services for adults as well as planning and executing community mobilization and social justice activism campaigns. Resilience prevention work requires cultural competency that reflects a feminist, victim-centered analysis of the problem of sexual violence and recognizes the system of privilege within our culture, the impact of oppression and the intersections of oppressions in survivor identities and communities. The Prevention Educator works with the Director of Education & Training to train and supervise Education & Training program volunteers and interns. This position is an essential part of the Education and Training Program and is based out of the Austin Community Office.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provide public/prevention education to area primary, middle, and high schools (public and private), youth serving agencies, and junior and four-year colleges/universities.
- Provide public/prevention education to priority communities including, but not limited to: faith-based, senior, youth, BIPOC, and LGBTQ populations and Chicago's west side community areas.
- Conduct institutional advocacy/outreach to area primary, middle, and high schools (public and private), youth serving agencies and other priority communities.
- Plan and facilitate community mobilization and social justice activism efforts consistent with the agency's mission, values and guiding principles.
- Conduct professional trainings for a variety of professional audiences, including educators.
- Work with the Director of Education & Training to update and enhance Resilience's specialized curricula for prevention education.
- Administer evaluations of public-prevention education/professional training programming. Regularly synthesize evaluation feedback from audience participants.
- Provide non-client crisis intervention, information, and referral services to participants in public prevention education/professional training programs and telephone callers to Resilience.
- Perform on-going outreach and networking to foster collaboration & maintain awareness of the Resilience services in the Austin community.

- Maintain accurate and complete records of all services delivered and adhere to agency and departmental documentation submission requirements.
- Complete monthly reports and documentation, including assisting the Director of Education and Training with statistical reporting.
- Attend all agency staff/supervision meetings, attend in-services and participate in staff development activities.
- Participate in meetings/trainings for local and statewide sexual assault coalitions, institutional partners, and other agencies, as assigned.
- Participate on internal and external committees, as needed.
- Assist Director of Education & Training with supervision of program volunteers and interns.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor's degree in Gender and Women's Studies, Education, or related field required.
- Ability to objectively advocate for the needs/rights of others.
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Ability to take initiative and work independently, as well as within a team.
- Ability to manage multiple tasks and meet deadlines with exceptional organizational and record-keeping skills.
- A collaborative and flexible style; needs to be an active and engaged team player.
- Positive attitude and pro-active approach to problem solving.
- Regular access to independent transportation, valid driver's license and proof of insurance for effective service delivery.
- Passion for Resilience's mission a must. Strongly preferred previous experience with the following:
 - Gender and/or human rights issues.
 - Sexual violence and gender-based violence.
 - Work within diverse communities with regards to, but not limited to: race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, socio-economic position, immigration, and ability.
 - Engaging men and male-identified people in gender-based violence work.
- Bilingual fluency in English/Spanish preferred.
- disability inclusion, economic justice and LGBTQ+ issues required.
- Previous work experience with the provision of sexual violence prevention education, professional training, and work with youth/adolescents is strongly preferred.
- Teaching experience with youth and adolescents and/or experience providing youth education is strongly preferred.
- Community activism experience preferred.
- Completion of a minimum of 40-hours of sexual assault training within 60 days of hire is required; previous completion of the training is strongly preferred.
- Strong analysis of social justice framework including racial equity, reproductive justice, Flexibility to work occasional evening and weekend hours is required.