

Sheltering in an Unsafe Place

Connecting virtually with students experiencing violence

Featuring Resilience Prevention Educators:

Maggie Arthur, MSW

Emma Gonzalez

Since the the city was ordered to shelter in place, rape crisis and domestic violence centers have seen an influx of calls for support.

This workshop will guide participants through several scenarios to help them understand how the trauma response shows up in the virtual classroom. More importantly, participants will leave with resources to help young people in need find a path to safety.
