

RESILIENCE
EMPOWERING
SURVIVORS
ENDING SEXUAL VIOLENCE

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Position Title: Our_Music_My_Body (OMMB) intern (1 position available)

Reports To: Northside Prevention Educator & OMMB Campaign Coordinator

General Role Description

Our Music My Body is a campaign that works with festival and venue staff, musicians, and music fans to create fun and consensual music experiences for all. The OMMB Intern will utilize their passion for music, activism and change by assisting the OMMB Campaign Coordinator and OMMB designated staff with recruiting, training, managing, and retaining OMMB volunteers; increasing traffic to OMMB social media platforms through management of accounts; and serving as an OMMB Music Ambassador by collecting data on sexual violence in the Chicago music scene and implementing outreach and engagement strategies with artists and music industry professionals to further the work of campaign. The intern will also assist with daily tasks related to the OMMB campaign.

Responsibilities

1. Attend a minimum of 40-hour intensive training and certification on sexual assault, which is included for free as part of the internship This training is required
2. Help OMMB Campaign Coordinator compile data from surveys, polls, and studies to aid the campaign
3. Work in coordination with OMMB Campaign Coordinator using Better Impact volunteer software to recruit, manage, and retain OMMB volunteers, including scheduling volunteers for tabling shifts at concerts and music festivals and fostering on-going engagement of volunteers in campaign
4. Work in coordination with OMMB Campaign Coordinator and Marketing & Communications Associate to implement outreach strategies in effort to increase OMMB visibility, including developing and maintaining brand content related to campaign on all relevant social media platforms
5. Serve as OMMB Music Ambassador, which includes: Researching artists for interest in addressing gendered violence in the music industry; compiling, marketing, and distributing OMMB materials to artists and industry professionals; and conducting media scans for trending stories related to violence at concerts to inform OMMB outreach strategy This position looks to widen and diversify OMMB's pool of partnered artists specifically with Black, Brown, and Indigenous artists, disabled artists, and marginalized musicians*
6. Table at concerts, festivals, and other events, some night and weekend hours will be required
7. Attend all required OMMB campaign meetings
8. Maintain accurate and complete records of all services delivered
9. Assist with daily tasks related to program development as needed

Requirements

10 – 12 hour/week 1-year commitment beginning Fall 2022 and concluding Fall 2023. Enrolled as a third or fourth year student in a degree-granting program at a college or university; preferred undergraduate majors include, but are not limited to: Gender Studies, LGBTQ+ Studies, African and Black Diaspora, Critical Ethnic Studies, Music, Media Arts, Communications, Journalism, Public Relations. Familiarity/participation in and passion for live music, especially within Chicago. Keen interest in prevention of sexual and domestic violence and social justice activism. Experience working within diverse communities. Knowledge of available tools, platforms, and trends in the social media space. Ability to take initiative and work independently, as well as within a team. Strong organizational skills, detail-oriented, and ability to manage multiple tasks. Excellent verbal and written communication skills, Ability to work occasional evenings and weekends, with some travel. Prior completion of a minimum 40-hour sexual assault training provided by an ICASA-certified rape crisis program OR completion of a minimum of 40-hour sexual assault training at start of internship.

Strongly Preferred

1. Familiarity/participation in and passion for large-scale music events
2. Experience organizing events
3. Working knowledge of Microsoft Office and proficiency in design programs such as Canva, Adobe InDesign and Photoshop

Check out some of the local and national press from this past year for more on our campaign:

- Outatime! Podcast on preventing SA in venues
- Our Music My Body educates on harassment \(The Alternative\)
- Our 10 Favorite Music-Related Charities Changing the World Right Now \(Soundfly Flypaper\)
- Sexual Harassment At Music Festivals 'Isn't Very Punk Rock Of You' \(Newsy\)
- Our Music My Body wants conversations about harassment and consent to include the concert scene

This position will be hybrid working both remotely and in-person. Resilience is committed to responding to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic with the most current safety protocols as outlined by public health authorities. The OMMB intern will work closely with the Campaign Coordinator to determine comfort level and safety during the course of the internship. Attendance at some live events will be required.

People of color, LGBTQ+, and disabled folks are encouraged to apply. Resilience is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, age, sex, gender identity, gender expression, national origin, sexual orientation, or disability in its procedures and policies.

To apply: email cover letter, resume and application to nwilson@ourresilience.org.